

10 FACTS ABOUT WEIRD BUT TRUE!

- 1 Nat Geo Kids has published more than 15,000 Weird But True! facts and counting!
- 2 Weird But True! started in National Geographic Kids magazine in 2004, and it's been the most popular feature ever since.
- 3 A former magazine editor's 60-year-old mom came up with the idea!
- 4 The Weird But True! series is up to 32 books with more than 7 million copies in print around the world!
- 5 Weird But True! radio co-host Becky Baines's dog, Bob Barker, has been featured in more than a dozen Nat Geo Kids books!
- 6 Celebrities including Julia Roberts have been caught on camera carrying Weird But True! books for their kids!
- 7 Canada was the first country to get its own Weird But True! book (March 2018). Can the U.S. be far behind? (Hint, hint.)
- 8 More than a third of all Weird But True! facts are about animals.
- 9 Kids can read Weird But True! books in 14 languages, including Chinese, Turkish, Thai, and Arabic!
- 10 One of our first and favorite Weird But True! facts: 99 percent of people can't lick their elbows. But 90 percent of people who read this will try!

